

How CLARIN went virtual

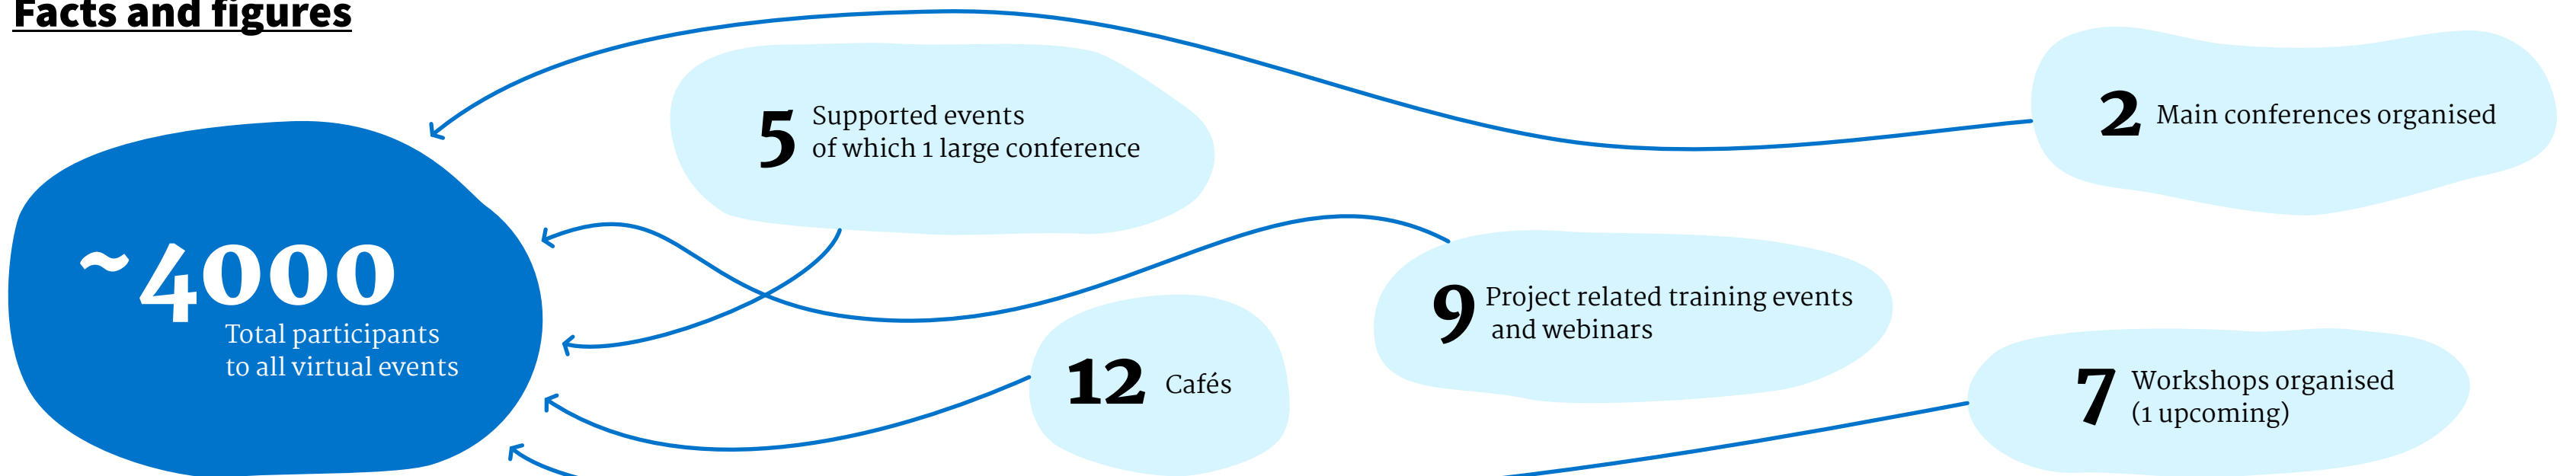

1.5 years online, in data and images

20 months of online events

Facts and figures

Topics and communities

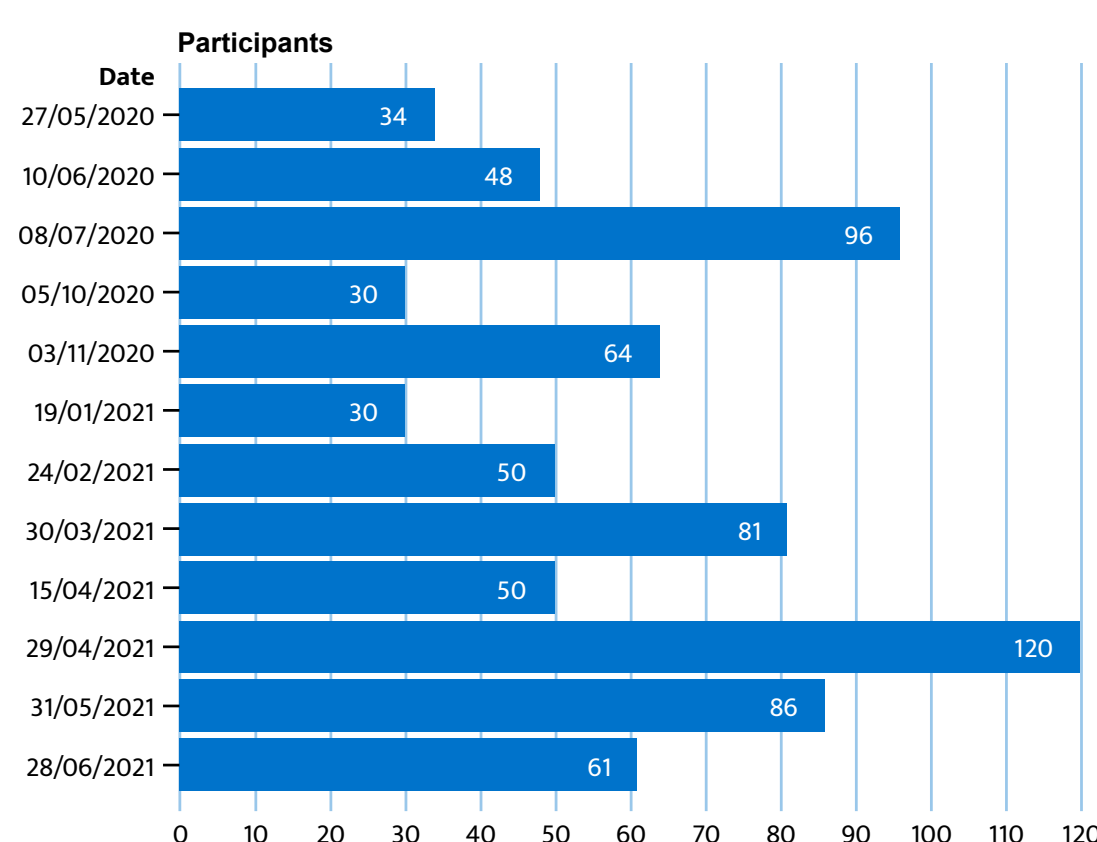

Focus on cafés

Many newcomers were registered.

"I became more aware of the variety of opportunities and resources provided by CLARIN, and the role it can have in contributing to other projects."

"It is a great example for organizing future center-oriented events."

Organising and supporting virtual events: lessons learned

What really worked:

- > short presentations
- > well-defined discussion format
- > the role of the chair, who animates the discussion
- > lots of work behind the scenes (and Zoom support)
