

Exploring Historical Sources with Language Technology: Results and Perspectives

CLARIN-NeDiMAH Workshop
hosted by Huygens ING

<http://bit.ly/exploringhistory>

Venue:

Huygens Institute for the History of the Netherlands
Prins Willem-Alexanderhof 5
2595 BE The Hague, Netherlands

Organisers:

Karina van Dalen-Oskam, Rik Hoestra (Huygens ING)
Gabor Mihaly Toth (University of Passau and University of Oxford)
Martin Wynne (CLARIN ERIC and University of Oxford)

Sponsors:

CLARIN <http://www.clarin.eu/>, European Science Foundation (ESF) <http://www.esf.org/>, and NeDiMAH <http://www.nediamah.eu/>

Programme

Monday 8th December

09:00	Arrival, registration, welcome and introductions
09:30	Tony McEnery & Helen Baker	The Corpus as Historian - Using Corpora to Investigate the Past
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Kay Gupta	Constructing the "militant suffragist" in The Times
11:25	Carsten Schnober	Welt der Kinder : Knowledge and Interpretation of the World as Portrayed in Textbooks and Children Books between 1850 and 1918
11:50	Stefano Menini	Computational Analysis of Historical Texts
12:15	Discussion
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Alex O'Connor	Cendari: Leveraging Natural Language Processing for Research in Historical Archives
13:55	Maarten van den Bos & Mariona Coll Ardanuy	Building a new political sphere? Early European Integration in Dutch digitized newspapers
14:20	Florentina Armaselu	Text Encoding and Enrichment for Linguistic Analysis: Archives on the policy of Armaments within Western European Union
14:45	Discussion
15:00	Tea break
15:30	Tomaz Erjavec	Modernising historical words
16:00	Show and Tell Lightning Presentations
17:00	End of day
19:00	Dinner

Tuesday 9th December

09:00	Arrival
09:15	Ralf Morton	Using TEI mark-up and pragmatic classification in the construction and analysis of the British Telecom Correspondence Corpus
09:40	Susanne Haaf	Text Type Classification for the Historical DTA Corpus
10:05	Renata Bronikowska	Possibilities of searching the corpus of baroque texts – goals and objectives
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Victor de Boer	DIVE: Dynamically Linking Collections on the Basis of Events
11:25	Amelia Joulain	The spatial patterns in historical texts: combining corpus linguistics and geographical information systems to explore places in Victorian newspapers
11:50	Lígia Gaspar Duarte	Kinship: complex relation extraction in Portuguese eighteen century narrative sources
12:15	Discussion
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Maciej Eder	Stylometry and historical corpora: 8,281 Latin texts of the Church Fathers
13:55	Martijn Naaijer and Dirk Roorda	Bible Research: Humanistic Information Retrieval
14:20	Tea break
14:40	Discussion: Language Technology and History, respondents Jan Odijk and Rik Hoestra
16:00	End of workshop	