

“Tea for two”: the Archive of the Italian Latinity of the Middle Ages meets the CLARIN infrastructure

F. Boschetti, R. Del Gratta, M. Monachini, M. Buzzoni, P.
Monella, R. Rosselli Del Turco

CLARIN-IT / ALIM

October 6th, 2020

Tea for two

ALIM

Digital library: resources

CLARIN-IT

Infrastructure: discover, search

What is ALIM?

- ▶ Archivio della Latinità Italiana del Medioevo
  - ▶ Digital Library: <http://alim.unisi.it/>
  - ▶ Medieval Latin texts
  - ▶ Italian area
- ▶ Two sections
  - ▶ Literary Sources (~ 400 texts)
  - ▶ Documentary Sources (~ 50 corpora that group ~ 6400 texts )

ALIM & CLARIN

What did ALIM provide to CLARIN?

- ▶ ALIM covers a wide, hitherto missing, period
  - ▶ Medieval Latin in Italy
- ▶ Digitized by domain experts
- ▶ TEI encoded
- ▶ Increase the number of Latin resources available

What did CLARIN provide to ALIM?

- ▶ ALIM → discoverable and searchable via CLARIN through the VLO
- ▶ CMDI compliant metadata
- ▶ Linguistic tools

Bonus

A converter from TEI Headers into Dublin Core metadata, available at <https://github.com/cnr-ilc/alim2clarin-dspace>

Tea for two

ALIM

Digital library: resources

CLARIN-IT

Infrastructure: discover, search

